

SBMA EDUCATION: VIRTUAL RESOURCES

Grades
7–12

SBMA AT SCHOOL

SBMA At School is a new webpage to discover SBMA lesson plans and educational videos. Organized by subject matter and grade level, the webpage features lesson plans related to English Language Arts, History-Social Studies, Visual Arts, and Ethnic Studies. New lesson plans are added monthly.

Weblink:

<https://www.sbma.net/learn/sbmaatschool>

SBMA on YouTube!

Discover artist talks, video lessons for educators, past performances, and more on the Museum's YouTube channel.

Weblink:

<https://www.youtube.com/c/SbmaNet/playlists>

SBMA GOOGLE DRIVE

To easily add SBMA materials to your students' Google Classroom, we've created a Google Drive full of SBMA lesson plans, art activities, slideshows, and more!

To accompany the 9th grade Ethnic Studies curriculum, the Drive features a special section dedicated to the theme of art and social justice. There you'll find lesson plans, compare-and-contrast slideshows, artist resources, as well as a project encouraging students to make their own billboard. Check back monthly for new materials.

Weblink:

https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1xkwTsa92vLq8kpF3teFY_nlsaA7NPTfw?usp=sharing

VIRTUAL FIELD TRIPS + CONVERSATIONS WITH ARTISTS

While Museum tours are currently paused, we are happy to organize a virtual field trip for you and your students via Zoom. Email us to develop a tour that connects with your current classroom topics or curriculum.

In conjunction with public programs, we also organize conversations between students and artists, writers, or scholars. Contact us to learn about our current roster of speakers!

Email:

schoolprograms@sbma.net

SBMA EDUCATION: VIRTUAL RESOURCES

Grades
7–12

SBMA AT HOME

SBMA At Home is a new webpage to find resources for at-home projects. It includes printable coloring pages and art-inspired activity sheets, as well as links to virtual exhibition tours and art-at-home instructional videos. For added fun, it also includes a selection of Zoom backgrounds featuring works in SBMA's permanent collection. Updated monthly.

Website:

<https://www.sbma.net/events/sbmaathome>

For more information or to connect with an SBMA Educator, please email us at:

education@sbma.net

ART SPARKS!

These step-by-step art breaks are designed to be quick and easy-to-do projects created with everyday materials found at home. Inspired by artworks in SBMA's permanent collection, Art Sparks encourage breaks away from the screen to draw, wonder, collage, and create! Discover art projects ranging from watercolor and drawing, to collage and fabric painting.

Weblink:

<https://www.sbma.net/events/sbmaathome/sparks>

MINDFUL LOOKING MEDITATIONS

Mindful Looking, a new series of artful meditations created by SBMA's Education Department in collaboration with Vivian Valentin, offers short reflections on works of art from SBMA's permanent collection. These art-based mindfulness exercises allow students to pause, reflect, and focus on breath, while cultivating curiosity, awareness, and acceptance.

Weblink:

<https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLDNL-AkxbYwhMHINOzJY1wCqskVbmVOo7>